Military Review's mission is to provide a forum for the open exchange of ideas on military affairs; to focus on concepts, doctrine, and warfighting at the tactical and operational levels of war; and to support the education, training, doctrine development, and integration missions of the Combined Arms Center and Command and General Staff College (CGSC).

Professional Bulletin 100-99, Military Review, appears bimonthly. This publication presents professional information, but the views expressed herein are those of the authors, not the Department of Defense or its elements. The content does not necessarily reflect the official U.S. Army position and does not change or supersede any information in other official U.S. Army publications. Authors are responsible for the accuracy and source documentation of material they provide. Military Review reserves the right to edit material. Basis of official distribution is one per 10 officers for major commands, corps, divisions, major staff agencies, garrison commands, Army schools, Reserve commands, and Cadet Command organizations; one per 25 officers for medical commands, hospitals, and units; and one per five officers for Active and Reserve brigades and battalions, based on assigned field grade officer strength. Military Review is available on microfilm from University Microfilms, Ann Arbor, MI 48106, and is indexed by the Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin.

Military Review, The Professional Journal of the United States Army (US ISSN 0026-4148) (USPS 123-830) is published bimonthly by the U.S. Army, CGSC, Fort Leavenworth, KS 66027-1254. Paid subscriptions are available through the Superintendent of Documents for $30 US/APO/FPO and $42.00 foreign addresses per year. Periodical postage paid at Leavenworth, KS, and additional mailing offices.
